

We all get
a little surly at times.

We just have to remember not to growl at others!

We serve
our customers better,
when we remember
that we are all customers!